Transfer and Overdraft Privilege Notices

In an effort to reduce our carbon footprint, effective March 1, 2026, we will halt the mailing of all Transfer and Overdraft Privilege notices. Information about these transactions can be found in your statement or in your account history immediately after being assessed. Your account history is available 24/7 in home banking and the free mobile banking app, County MoGO. If you have any questions or concerns about these notifications, please contact our member service center for more information.

Error Resolution Notice

In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers, call us at 1-877-318-3838, write to us at memberservice@countyfcu.org, or come into a branch as soon as you can if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

1. Tell us your name and account number (if any).
2. Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
3. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will investigate your complaint and will promptly correct any error(s). If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.
